

FOR LITTLE ONES

MISS WOOLARD ENTERTAINS FOR MISS DAVIDSON.

One of the pleasantest features of the week with the little folks was the party given on the lawn for Miss Oakley Davidson of Chicago. Saturday afternoon from 3 until 5, the little folks, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Woolard at 716 North Lawrence avenue, had complete possession and they reigned supreme, giving vent to their happiness and good feeling with childish laughter. The scene was enchanting, with gallant little men and beautiful little maids who with radiant faces reflected complete enjoyment of the day. These young society folk were chaperoned by Madams W. B. Throckmorton, J. O. Davidson, Mrs. E. C. Bush and Miss Nina Bush. Miss Mary Hitting and Miss Emma served at the punch bowl in the daintiest manner. In the later part of the afternoon the little folks were grouped and a photograph was taken of the scene. Then they were seated at tables, all sitting on little chairs, when another photo was taken. The luncheon tables were covered with the whitest of linen with a white carnation flower at each place. In the center and at each end were cut flowers giving out the sweetest of fragrance. Sweet peas, roses and nasturtiums were the floral decorations. The party was a most decided success, and Miss Woolard proved herself to be a charming hostess. The party on the lawn will long be cherished as one of the events in their lives. Those present were: Oakley Davidson, Elsie Pitch, Grace Pullington, Ruth Imboden, Florence Voss, Julia Hitting, Cassie Bittig, Helen Diamond, Grace Billingsley, Mary Van Lantz, Harold Grafton, Julia Margill, Laura Keach, Hild Keach, Clement Wilson, Margie Jackson, Helen Jackson, Julia Wilson, Vivian McNamara, Eugene Stanley, Arthur Noble, Eliza Throckmorton, Throck Davidson, Finlay Ross, Ted Ellsworth, Margaret Case, Helen Case, Tom Torrington, William Torrington, Helen Brook, Catherine Brook, Howard Galusha, Charles Pool, Victor Dold, John Jacob Dold, Henry Junior, Margaret Keenan, Hyattia Keenan, Tess Taylor, Alice Jones, Merv Ebley, Frank Robertson, Vinton Mandigo, Charlotte Wickersham, Ruth Wickersham, Fred Nafziger, Philip Chapman, James Beach, Amy Cornell, Luther Damon, Hiram Lewis and Mildred Imboden.

Mrs. J. J. McNamara gave the second of her series of entertainments, last Thursday afternoon at her elegant home on North Lawrence avenue. Progressive whist was the feature of this delightful function and extremely pleasant and exciting were the games in which the ladies indulged during the afternoon. The beautiful rooms were profusely decorated with flowers, among which roses predominated, and their lovely faces were represented on the unique hand-painted score cards, while sweet peas were chosen as favors. The toothsome and dainty lunch served after the games attracted a great share of attention and added to Mrs. McNamara's already widespread reputation for hospitality.

The reception given by the Young Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. last evening was a very enjoyable affair. Invitations had been issued to their numerous friends and a large crowd was present. The house was both tastily and beautifully decorated with lovely flowers. One of the unique features of the decorations was some hand-painted placards which bore inscriptions reading: "Make all the noise you can, and have a good time." "If any one trumps their partner's ace or commits a like misdemeanor a jury of twelve will be appointed to settle the same." The large rooms of the Hettiger residence were pictures of beauty, filled as they were with such a bevy of daintily-clad young ladies, whose pretty summer dresses reflected every delicate hue imaginable. The entertainment committee, consisting of Misses Myrtle Slass, Abbie Potts and Emma Potts, had collected the baby pictures of all the old and new members, the guessing of which elicited much merriment. Miss Grace McAdams having guessed the greatest number, was the fortunate winner of the prize—a daintily embroidered photograph holder. Palatable refreshments were served during the afternoon, and all departed voicing the reunion a happy success. The circle entertained their former members as guests, who included Messdames Homer Caldwell, Welles Miller, John W. DANGER IN SODA.

Serious Results Sometimes Follow Its Excessive Use.

Common sense is all right in its place and indispensable in the kitchen and for cooking and washing purposes, but it was never intended for a medicine, and people who use it as such will some day regret it.

We refer to the common use of soda to relieve heartburn or sour stomach, a habit which thousands of people practice almost daily, and one which is fraught with danger; moreover the soda only gives temporary relief and in the end the stomach trouble gets worse and worse.

The soda acts as a mechanical irritant to the walls of the stomach and bowels and cases are on record where it accumulated in the intestines, causing death by inflammation or peritonitis.

Dr. Harlandson recommends as the safest and surest cure for sour stomach (acid dyspepsia) an excellent preparation sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. These tablets are large 20 grain lozenges, very pleasant to taste and contain the natural acids, pepsines, and digestive elements essential to good digestion and when taken after meals they digest the food perfectly and promptly before it has time to ferment, sour and poison the blood and nervous system.

Dr. Worth states that he invariably uses Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in all cases of stomach derangements and finds them a certain cure not only for stomach, but by promptly digesting the food they create a healthy appetite, increase flesh and strengthen the action of the heart and liver. They are not a cathartic, but intended only for stomach diseases and weaknesses and will be found reliable in any stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach, in which all druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50 cents per package.

A little book describing all forms of stomach weakness and their cure mailed free by addressing the Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich.

The new officers of the Circle, elected at the last meeting, are Miss Elsie Walker, president; Miss Myrtle Hinton, vice president; Miss Grace McAdams, secretary; Mrs. Vorn Frazier, financial secretary; and Miss Margaret Brown, treasurer.

STAGS ARE ENTERTAINED.

Mr. S. W. Cooper gave a stag party last Thursday evening at his elegant home on College Hill to a few of his gentleman friends. Vocal music by Mr. Hal S. Ray and Mr. Cooper, with some instrumental selections by Mr. Priddy, helped to make a very enjoyable evening. The refreshments included all the dainties of the season which particularly appeal to the "inner man." As the smoke from the "hannans" curled aloft in spiral form, sparkling wit, charming and instructive conversation, with stories, completed an evening fraught with pleasure. Mr. Cooper's guests were Messrs. A. C. Jones, Bruce Priddy, George Dold, J. D. Houston, O. B. Stocker, Charlie Carey, Dr. Oldham, Hal S. Ray, C. G. Cohn, Homer Caldwell, H. J. Hagney, Dr. Hoffman, Victor Murdoch and C. H. Smyth.
